Harrington Elected Chairman of Portland Cement Association

BOSTON – Portland Cement Association elected Dan Harrington of Lehigh Cement Company as chairman on Tuesday, April 29. Harrington's official appointment follows a period as interim chairman following the resignation of Paul Yhouse on March 17, 2003, immediately following his resignation from Holcim (US) Inc.

Harrington accepted the chairman's post during the cement association's board meeting in Boston, Mass. As president of Lehigh's northern division, Harrington assumes the duties as PCA chairman with 19 years of cement industry experience.

Harrington is also the current chairman of Pennsylvania Aggregates & Concrete Association (PACA) and the former president of the Northeast Cement Shippers Association. He earned his MBA from Fairleigh-Dickinson University and holds an MA in executive management and a PhD in executive management from the Claremont Graduate School.
