

Portland Cement Association

News Release

February 24, 2003

For more information, contact
Ryan Puckett
847.972.9136
rpuckett@cement.org

The Future of High Rise Commercial Construction in New York City

NEW YORK – New York City Concrete Promotional Council and Portland Cement Association will co-host “Shaping the Future of New York City’s Skyline,” the second in a series of symposiums examining the contribution of concrete hi-rise commercial buildings to the New York City skyline.

WHO: The final panelists of commercial construction experts will be released at a later date.

SPONSORS: New York City Concrete Promotional Council
Portland Cement Association (PCA)
CRSI – Knickerbocker Chapter
Decon-Stud Rails
Concrete Industry Board

WHAT: Shaping the Future of New York City’s Skyline
The second in a series of symposiums on the future of concrete construction for high-rise commercial buildings in New York City

WHERE: New York Athletic Club
180 Central Park South, New York City 10019

WHEN: Wednesday, April 23, 2003
8:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

CONTACT: Ryan Puckett, PCA – (847) 858-2672
Mike Mota, PCA – (856) 264-3851

Based in Skokie, Ill., the Portland Cement Association represents cement companies in the United States and Canada. It conducts market development, engineering, research, education, and public affairs programs.

#