

Portland Cement Association

April 3, 2003

News Release

For more information, contact

Ryan Puckett

847.972.9136

rpuckett@cement.org

Industry Leaders to Discuss the Future of High-Rise Commercial Construction in New York City

NEW YORK – New York City Concrete Promotional Council and Portland Cement Association will co-host “Shaping the Future of New York City’s Skyline,” the second in a series of symposiums examining the contribution of concrete hi-rise commercial buildings to the New York City skyline.

WHO: Keynote Speaker: Robert Davidson, Chief Architect; Port Authority of New York/New Jersey

Moderator: Antonio Limbarido, Engineered Devices Corporation

Panel: Irwin G. Cantor, P.E., Irwin G. Cantor Consulting Services; Vincent DeSimone, P.E., DeSimone Consulting Engineers; Jacob Grossman, P.E., Rosenwasser Grossman Consulting Engineers PC; Ahmad Rahimian, PhD, S.E., P.E., The Cantor Seinuk Group, Inc.; Reginald Hough, FAIA, RH Architectural Concrete; Allan M. Paull, P.E., Tishman Construction Corporation of New York; Robert Mannino, Pinnacle Industries, LLC; Robert Ledwith, Local 46, Metallic Lathers Union and Reinforcing Iron Workers

WHAT: Shaping the Future of New York City’s Skyline

WHERE: New York Athletic Club; 180 Central Park South

WHEN: Wednesday, April 23, 2003, 8:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

CONTACT: Ryan Puckett, PCA – (847) 858-2672; rpuckett@cement.org
Mike Mota, PCA – (856) 264-3851; mmota@cement.org
RSVP by April 18 – form available at <http://www.portcement.org/port/invitation04232003.pdf>

SPONSORS: New York City Concrete Promotional Council; Portland Cement Association (PCA); Concrete Industry Board; CRSI – Knickerbocker Chapter; Decon-Stud Rails; Engineered Devices Corporation; ESSROC, St. Lawrence Cement

###